BY TOM CASADAY, CO. AGENT

J. R. Speed, Associate at the county agent's office, County Agent, attended the third annual All-Breed Barrow and Carcass Show at Auburn part of last week. Mr. Speed had this to say about the event: "I believe there was more interest shown in producing fast growing, top quality hogs than at any meeting I have attended in recent years."

I think that just about everybody in Coffee County is convinced that hogs offer real opportunities for profitable expansion in Coffee County.

Taylor and Carlton Larkins in Elba last week about beef cattle. Both of these men are in the purebred business. Taylor is concentrating on polled herds and Larkins on Santa Gertrudis. Taylor has five bulls and Larkins has 1 bull that will be sold in the annual Performance Testing Bull Sale at Auburn March 26. Both of these men are doing outstanding jobs with their respective breeds. They are both on the Alabama Beef Cattle Improvement Association program.

We helped Jake Morrow last week with trucker meetings in New Hope, Pine Level, Zion Chapel, Damascus, and Kinston. Quite a bit of interest has already been shown in increasing pea production for the Elba market.

Coffee County folks who have plenty of land and labor can increase their volume of business and farm by checking into the possibilities of planting some peas. Complete information can be obtained at Morrow Gin and Peanut Company in Elba.

Jake Morrow of Elba is working hard to promote an expanded trucker program in Coffee County and especially pea production this year. Several people have already told him of their intentions to plant. However, to take care of the people in other areas of the county, the following stores are official sign-up places: Robert Stephens Store, Damascus; Elmer and James Bryan's Stores, Pine Level; Morrow Gin and Peanut Company, Elba; Roy Barlow's Store, Basin; Perry's Store, Perry County; R. D. Dawkins Store, and the county agent's office in Enterprise.

Folks keep asking me about time and whether to put it down or not and when to put it down and so forth. My answer is that if you need it, anytime you can get it spread is the time to put it out. If you put it out in April, it won't do you as much good as it will in later years but it will do you some good. This land will certainly be in shape for maximum yields the following year.

W.H. Taylor of Elba called me the other day to remind me of the Polled Hereford sale which will be held in the annual Performance Testing Bull Sale at Auburn March 26. This sale is sponsored by the Wiregrass Polled Hereford Association. The show and sale will be held in the new livestock barn at the Farm Center in Dothan. Thirty-two bulls and 25 females have been consigned.

I was interested in learning that Taylor along with Johnnie B. Maddox of New Brockton is donating a purebred heifer each to the Haven, the home for alcoholics which is located near Dothan.

Roy L. Ellis, Chairman of the Coffee County ASCS Committee, New Brockton, reminded our class of farm management students the other night in Elba to check with the ASC Office on their cotton allotment. Ellis has this to say about the 1965 program: "Each farmer has a different allotment and to make sure that each individual farmer understands his position, it will be best to go into the office in New Brockton and check the records."

The Fairview, Damascus, Mt. Pleasant, New Hope, Kinston, and New Brockton clubs will meet this week.

Interest continues to grow in the 4-H, FFA, and PMA Fat Calf Show and Sale to be held in early April. These youngsters are busy getting their calves ready for the big show and sale. The show will be small in number this year, but we believe the quality will be better than usual.

Make your plans now to attend. It will be held at the Enterprise Livestock Barn.

In 1964 the Early Runners led the list of runner prizes at the Wiregrass Subassociation. The Early Runners are a group of young people who are interested in the dairy industry. They are planning to have a contest this year. The winners will be announced at the bottom of the list in recent years.

Starting today + until March 1 John Elder is laundering wash pants for only 25¢ and shirts (5 or more) for 13¢ each.

NUMBER 33

THE AUDIENCE IS ROLLING WITH LAUGHTER as the "Ilted love" Judge Ens Paul is ushered in by Mr. Elmer Taylor to the Womanless Wedding sponsored by the Elba Band Saturday night. There is some question of 'Who enjoyed it most' the audience or the members of the wedding party!

FFA Chapter Confers Degrees

This week of February 22, the birthday of George Washington, is designated as National Future Farmer Week. George Washington was first in many things, among which is the first "scientific farmer". It is out of deep respect and admiration for George Washington, the farmer in whose progressive ways they seek to follow, that Future Farmers annually observe their National FFA Week at the time of his birthday.

At its last regular meeting the local chapter conferred the Chapter Farmer degree upon twelve of its members. This is the highest degree that a chapter can award a member. All degrees in FFA are based upon activities and accomplishments of its members. Those receiving this degree are Billy Mallory, Jerome Blackmon, Johnny Foley, Donnie McCart, Billy Smith, Kenneth Barlow, Randall Hodge, Kenneth Baker, Mac Hodge, and unique prom.

Methodist Honor Two Teachers

On Thursday evening, February 25, a banquet will be held in the new Fellowship Hall of the Elba Methodist Church to honor Mrs. L.S. Rainer, Sr. and Mrs. Nell Cooper for their faithful service in the Children's Division of the church. Both of the ladies have recently retired from their teaching positions in the Children's Division.

Mrs. L.S. Rainer, Sr., began her work in the Children's Division almost forty years ago when her oldest son was three months old. She has served both as teacher and superintendent of the division. Mrs. Rainer has also been active in the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church, has served on the Official Board of the Church, and has been instrumental in directing many of the youth activities. She has three children who are also active in the work of the church.

Mrs. Nell Cooper was teacher and pianist in the Children's Division for almost fifty years. She has also been active in the W.S.C.S. Official Board, and for many years sang in the Church Choir. Mrs. Cooper has four children and fourteen grandchildren who are all members of the Elba Methodist Church and are active in the work of the church.

The Elba Methodist Church is very proud to honor two such faithful members who have done so much to instruct and influence the children and youth of the church.

Any Coffee County farmer desiring to transact business with that office, such as signing in the 1965 Feed Grain Program, releasing and/or requesting cotton and peanut acreages, measurement service, participation in the 1965 Domestic Cotton Program, etc., may do so on this date.

Mr. Dean explained that this is being done for the convenience of farmers who find it difficult to contact the county office during the regular work week, or for any farmer desiring to contact the office on February 27.

DEPARTMENT OF VETERAN AFFAIRS TO BE CLOSED WEEK

The county offices of the Department of Veterans Affairs, located in Elba and Enterprise, will be closed next week. Maxwell Waters, Veterans Service Officer for Coffee County, will be in Washington, D.C., attending the Rehabilitation Commission Meeting of the American Legion.

Higher yields and in-creased efficiency team up for lower production costs. Farmers have two basic ways of reducing pro-duction costs—either in-crease output or cut the costs of individual pro-duction practices. Often both can be done by using the most up-to-date tech-nology.

G. L. Edwards, Work Unit Conservationist, is presenting a program to all the boys' 4-H Clubs this month. This program tells the story through pictures of many of the activities of the Coffee County Soil Con-servation District. I have certainly enjoyed the pro-grams and know the boys are receiving a great deal of educational in-formation from them.

In 1964 the Early Run-ners led the list of runner pean-uts. At the Wiregrass Substation, The Early Run-ners averaged 2.4 pounds per bushel. The Early Run-ners are now in the list of runner pean-uts. If you have been planting Early Dike Runner, you might want to consider this year.

The Early Run-ners have consistently been the bottom of the list in recent years.

Blair-Stuckey Wedding Event Of February 20

The marriage of Miss Barbara Stuckey and James Blair was solemnized Saturday, February 20, at three o'clock in the afternoon at Westside Baptist Church. Reverend C. A. Owens, of Ocala, Florida, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in the wedding decorations. Two floor candelabra, holding yellow candles and baskets of white mums and yellow glads flanked each side of the altar. In the background were two large ferns and a tree candelabra holding various shades of yellow and white burning candles.

Nuptial music was furnished by Donnie Morrow who sang "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "The Wedding Prayer."

Miss Freddie Johnson accompanied at the piano. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white tulle with a long train and a long veil. Her shoulder length veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of pearls. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and lilies of the valley, centered with an orchid.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Sue Akridge. Bridesmaids were Misses Judy Bailey, Cheryl Clark, and Glenda Ennis; bridesmatron was Mrs. Judy McIlwain. Miss Cindy Blair, niece of the groom, served as flower girl. All were gowned alike in street length dresses of yellow tulle.

The groom was attended by Steve Dewberry as best man. Ushers were Johnny Vaughan, Charles Pearce, Kenneth Mooney, and Lamar Brooks.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stuckey, parents of the bride, were hosts at a reception in the church fellowship hall. The bride's table was covered with yellow and an overlay of white.

Mr. O'Donnell emphasized that taxpayers seeking assistance should review last year's return and read current instructions first. Frequently, a deduction or item of income is missed because the advisor was not furnished with the necessary information.

Mr. O'Donnell emphasized that regardless of any underpayment, interest and possible penalties are the taxpayer's. On joint returns, both husband and wife are equally responsible.

Cancer Fund Goal Set

The Alabama Division of the American Cancer Society has announced a goal of $150,000 for its April Crusade and set April 27 as statewide "C-Day" (Conquer Cancer Day).

Leonard C. Johnson of Huntsville and James J. Britton of Montgomery, crusade chairmen for North and South Alabama, respectively, urged all citizens to participate as volunteer workers and contributors.

"C-Day" will be a combination educational and fund-raising event, with volunteer organizations in most Alabama counties staging a house-to-house canvass. Although most counties will hold "C-Day" on April 27, others will use other dates, Johnson and Britton announced.

They explained that the 1965 Crusade will emphasize a "Tell Your Neighbor" theme. Volunteers, in their door-to-door bell-ringing, will hand out a leaflet containing life-saving facts about cancer and information about the Society's effort to help conquer this dread disease.

Much of the preparation for this year's Crusade will be centered on training volunteers to make them the best possible guides to helping save lives from cancer.

Volunteers, the lifeblood of the Society's anti-cancer effort, are greatly needed, the ACS leaders said.

"To saturate the community with life-saving information, it is no exaggeration to say that without them, the Society's program would not be possible,"

According to Johnson, the American Cancer Society, 92,000 men and women will die of cancer this year because they did not get to their doctors in time for early diagnosis and prompt treatment.

The goal of "Tell Your Neighbor" is to persuade the American public of the importance of prompt diagnosis and treatment of cancer, and to emphasize that an annual health checkup will mean many thousands of lives saved from the disease.

The second goal will be to raise money for research, education and service.

Dorsey Earnings Up During '64

Net earnings of the Dorsey Corporation rose to $150,727 during 1964, as compared to a 1963 figure of $87,166 while net sales increased by 24 percent.

The 1964 figures were announced by J. Frank Harrison, president of Dorsey. Mr. Harrison pointed out that 1964 net earnings were arrived at after giving effect to a reduction of approximately $14,000 in 1964 federal income taxes, afforded by the investment credit allowed on certain assets purchased.

There was no corresponding reduction of taxes in 1963, he noted.

Consolidated net sales for Dorsey, which is the parent corporation of the Chattanooga Glass Company and Dorsey Trainers, Inc., totaled $3,635,967 during 1964, as compared to $2,704,350 the previous year.

Dorsey's net income per common share, after provision for preferred stock dividends, totaled $1.08 for 1964, as compared to 75 cents for the previous year.

Mr. Harrison disclosed the figures are based upon 814,160 shares outstanding. The financial statement released by Mr. Harrison showed that Dorsey had net income of $326,026 during the final quarter of 1964, as compared to $142,802 during the same quarter of 1963. The 1964 fourth-quarter figures also reflect the reduction in federal income taxes afforded by the investment credit, it was noted.

Scouts Feature American Heritage In February

Farm NEWS

BY TOM CASADAY, CO AGENT

Coffee County farmers can look for $18 and above in Montgomery asking hog prices in July and August. It could go even a little higher. The reason for all of this is that there are 8 per cent fewer fall and spring pigs than at this time last year.

Most farmers cannot do anything about prices paid for their hogs. They must accept the prices received, but there are four things they can control that can influence their profits. These are: (1) A larger volume of business or dollar sales. (2) Higher rates of crop and livestock production. (3) Selecting and fitting to use of available land, capital, labor, and management. (4) Higher efficiency of labor.

I had a note a few days ago from L.B. Byrd of the forest land for its Sunday issue, or the net annual growth from 500,000 acres every year.

A friend of mine near Elba told me the other day that he only made three tons of peanuts on 14 acres this past year and that his yields almost always are low. He said that he had never tried, had never soil tested, had never used any slag or land plaster, and had never dusted for leafhoppers. In fact, he had not used any recommended peanut production practices.

The bad part of this is that we have hundreds of peanut growers in the county who could tell the same story. Our average yield in 1964 was 1,197. Houston County's average yield was 1,607 and Geneva County's average yield was over 1,400 pounds.

Coffee County's 35 4-H local leaders will be honored Thursday night in Elba for their work with the county. Coffee County folks who have good acreages of time and money should realize that they should realize satisfaction from their work.

Coffee County's 35 4-H local leaders will be honored Thursday night in Elba for their work with the county. Coffee County folks who have good acreages of time and money should realize that they should realize satisfaction from their work.

Down through the years, Coffee County principals and teachers in the county school system have made giant contributions to 4-H Club work in this county.

James Pridden, Jr., and Roy Ellis and one or two other agri-business leaders met Monday morning to help plan an organizational meeting for a Coffee County Agricultural Suppliers Group.

We want to set up a group of about 50 folks who are vitally interested in farm income in Coffee County to help promote an expanded farm educational program in Coffee County.

... about your SOCIAL SECURITY ...

A new booklet, "Answers to a Woman's Questions About Social Security," is now available at the Dothan, Alabama social security district office. Mr. Harry N. Scott, social security district manager, announced today.

Written from the woman's point of view, the booklet may however find wide readership among the male population, as well. For it provides answers to questions such as: "Can working woman collect both her own retirement benefit and also a full wife's benefit?" "If the husband of a working woman dies, can she be paid anything based on his work record?" "Under what conditions can the husband of a working woman be paid benefits?"

It also points out that children of a working woman can be paid monthly benefits at her death, even if they continue living with their father, and even if he is working.

The social security program provides nonworking wives is described in a separate series of questions and answers. There is also a section on the woman's role in the social security program as an employer of household help.

Women have always had an important place in the social security program. Mr. Scott pointed out, noting that a woman was card you obtained from the social security office is the one that you will keep throughout your working lifetime. To this account will be credited your earnings regardless of where you work or live.

The earnings credited to your account will be the basis of determining the amount of benefits you or your dependents or survivors will receive when you become disabled, retire, or die.

To assure yourself that all creditable earnings have been reported, and that your benefits will be the highest possible, you should check your social security account from time to time.

Ask at your social security district office for Form OAR-7004, "Request for Statement of Earnings," or write directly to the Social Security Administration, P.O. Box 57, Baltimore, Maryland. Print your name, social security account number, and date of birth. Be sure to sign your request for earnings statement.

Club Calves Pay Off

Riding that club calf to college! That's just one way of saying Sara Nell and Ray Mathews, Enterprise Route 1, are going to use money from their calf projects to attend college. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. John W. Mathews, of the New Home Community in Coffee County.

Sara Nell is a senior this year at the Enterprise High School. She is a member of the Enterprise FFA and a former 4-H'er from Goodman Junior High School. She has shown calves for the last five years and has two good Hereford steers this year. Ray is a member of the Goodman Junior 4-H Club this year. This will be his fourth year to show calves and he has two real good Herefords to enter.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathews have encouraged both these club members over the years to participate in the calf program. They have furnished everything necessary for a good project. The total income from the sale of these calves since the very beginning has been put in a saving account to be used in an educational program beyond high school.

Certainly this family is to be congratulated for a job well done. We would like to see others follow this same procedure.

Control of thrips in Alabama does not necessarily mean more cotton per acre! In fact, untreated plots in numbers of experiments outyield treated plots.

The main benefit from the control of thrips results from a more uniform, vigorous growth of the young plants. However, visible differences usually disappear by the time the cotton is 4 to 6 weeks of age.

The disadvantages from controlling thrips are: (1) Increases cost of cotton production. (2) Results in no increase in yield. (3) Destroys beneficial insect populations that aid in the control of a major pest—the bollworm.

Southern blight or "white mold" is a destructive disease of peanuts in Alabama and other peanut-growing states. The blight is caused by a soil fungus which attacks roots and soil level parts of peanuts and many other plants.

A wide range of plants serves as host for the blight fungus, and it has the ability for long survival in the soil. For these reasons, control measures have been restricted to cultural practices.

The disease is usually more severe where peanuts are planted following peanuts or other legume crops, and less severe where oats, corn, or other grain crops are planted in rotation with peanuts. Oats appeared to give best control of the fungus in studies by Auburn University Agricultural Experiment Station.

The annual 4-H Club Local Leader Banquet will be held Thursday night, February 25, 7:00 p.m., in the Elba High School lunchroom. This big event is sponsored by Dorsey Trailers of Elba. The meal will be prepared and served by the Bonnie Taylor Home Demonstration Club.

We are expecting approximately 100 people to attend this banquet. It is the one occasion during the year when the local leader (backbone of the 4-H Club program) can be honored. We are certainly thankful for the local leaders and this opportunity to honor them.

The directors and officers of the Coffee County Cattlemen's Association will be meeting on Tuesday night, February 23, 7:00 p.m., at the Elba Country Club. The program for 1965 will be the main topic of discussion.

Plans for the 4-H, FFA, and FFA Fat Calf Show and Sale will also be discussed. We want to express our thanks to the Cattlemen's Association for their co-sponsorship of this big event.

Time is running out—be sure to sign up if you want to plant peas for the Elba market. Contact Jake Morrow, Wildon Bryan, James Bryan, Roy Barlow, Robert Stephens, or our office if you desire acreage.
